We received Emails from: No emails received but comments were to speak louder.

Mr. Eugene Steransky, Chapman Street spoke of the water issue he has in front of his property. He asked the Board of Supervisors to help him. Mr. Steransky feels it is sewage. Mr. Rovinski asked Mr. Linskey to see if he can inquire to the WWSA to assist this resident.

Mrs. Shirley Berti Neely, Main Street spoke to say thank you to Chief Frank Mudlock and Sargent Chris Purcell on how they handled the situation with the truck driver that damaged her building on Main Street and the excellent report they wrote. Mrs. Neely also stated that when the lines were painted on Main Street after the new paving, they made the area in front of her Salon more narrow so now when her customer's park they are over the white line. She stated it was not this narrow before.

Mrs. Neely got back up to the podium to ask about the repair work on the new paving of Main Street near Winter Street where there was a water main break, when it was going to be repaired correctly. Mr. Rovinski stated it will be taken care of and restored by the water company.

Mr. Rich Shaughnessy, Inkerman Road, spoke in reference to the pipe repair work that was done on Inkerman Road and that the road is sinking in very badly. He is concerned that once winter time comes someone is going to get hurt. Mr. Rovinski stated that they are coming back to repair.
