All below comments pertain to MOTUS:

Mr. Charles Adonizio from Atlas Realty asked the Board of Supervisors if they were voting on Motus at the February 26, 2023 meeting. Mr. Rovinski replied that they were not.

Peter Sott, Old Pickaway asked the Board of Supervisors about a tax abatement. Mr. Rovinski replied that that was too far in advance.

Dave Rodeghiero, Westminster Road asked about the letters and why a lot of the residents did not receive them. Paula Schnelley and Joelle Dougherty replied that 39 letters were sent out.

Amy Flaim, Westminster Road, asked about the zoning book and was told she can go online and find it.

John Diehl, Rear Westminster Road asked about if this would benefit the Township and is there a noise ordinance? Atty. Ross replied that it is due process and Motus cannot do anything without the people being heard.

Charles Adonizio spoke at the podium again to state that he is from Plains but living on Westminster Road is very quiet. The noise will be going constantly. Also asked the board if they knew what spot zoning was. He proceeded to explain to the board that this is what Motus is asking the board to vote on.

Sarah Woolard, Sunset Drive, Plains, was worried about the integrity of the neighborhood and the safety of the children.
